FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cobb Alcohol Taskforce and Cobb County School District Join Forces to offer Guiding Good Choices – Free Training for Parents

The Cobb Alcohol Task Force and the Cobb County School District Success for All Students (SFAS) project join forces to help parents of children ages 9 – 14 reduce the risk that their children will develop drug and/or alcohol problems. Parents' child-raising practices, attitudes, values and behaviors greatly influence their children. The Guiding Good Choices five session program is designed to give parents the tools they need to successfully raise drug and alcohol-free children.

The SFAS project is funded by a federal Safe Schools/Healthy Students grant, which provides school-based mental health and other intervention services. SFAS will train 12-15 community Guiding Good Choices facilitators at various times throughout the life of the grant. Training and all curriculum materials are free and provided to each participant/organization to enable them to implement the program in their communities on an on-going basis. The next Guiding Good Choices facilitators training will be March 1 – 3, 2010 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Mansour Center in Marietta. For more information about participating, please contact Stuart Bachman at stuart.bachman@cobbk12.org or call 678-736-9419. Community organizations and faith-based agencies are invited to become facilitators. Space is limited.

Guiding Good Choices – a Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration approved program – has gained national recognition for its sustainable results in local communities. In a four-year follow-up study, the Guiding Good Choices program was shown to reduce alcohol use by 40.6% and significantly reduce the rates of initiation for marijuana and drunkenness.
